MANY PROBLEMS BEFORE JAPANESE

Premier Issues Statement—
Extension of Franchise Question for Settlement

TOKIO, Thursday, Dec. 23.—On the eve of the formal opening of the diet Premier Hara issued a statement charging that "many problems and some of them not easy of solution, are before Japan."

"Extension of the franchise, the eternal food problem and foreign diplomacy, especially with reference to China, stare us in the face," he said. "They demand concentrated study before a solution can be reached. The government is optimistic, however, and expects to encounter no serious obstacles."

"Concerning the franchise we are prepared to meet the will of the people."

Premier Hara added that he believed social and industrial conditions in Japan compared favorably with those of Europe. In the matter of foreign diplomacy, he added, Japan needed a careful propaganda to correct the misunderstanding of Japanese aims and ideals and to defeat the propaganda of the general public of Japan which should cultivate a broad international spirit through intercourse and the exchange of views.

"I am convinced," said Premier Hara, "that Japan is advancing with the rest of the civilized world and is not going behind or against it. Japan can go forward with faith in her future."

Germany Censors Letters and Decides if Free from Harm

BERLIN, Dec. 8.—(By Mail).—Germany is gravely concerned over the military demonstrations which attended the recent arrival in Berlin of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg when he came to testify before the committee of the national assembly.

The pan-German newspapers loudly rejoice and are gleeful over the fact that an honor company of the national defense troops was called out to stand guard around the railway station when Hindenburg entered the city. They tell with joy how Hindenburg and Ludendorff received the company and how the crowd pressed around the two former military leaders kissing their hands and clothing.

On the other hand the Vorwaerts, the socialist newspaper, denounces the whole affair as a political demonstration with a Pan-German coloring. The paper blamed Major General Reinhardt, commander of the Berlin troops, for "executing this trick" and criticized the government for allowing him to do it. General Reinhardt has since been ordered to retire from the army.

Bern von Richthofen, addressing the democratic assembly at Lankwitz, said: "The latest events in Berlin have not increased abroad the belief in Germany's democracy and the stability of the new German republic. The military demonstration cannot possibly induce the English and especially the French to leave us the docks and cranes which we need for the reconstruction of our economic life."

THE CHRISTMAS GIFT FOR MOTHER

In the Christmas times of the long ago, There was one gift we used to know That was better than any other: It wasn't of toys that we hoped to get, But the talk we had—and I hear them yet— Of the gift we'd buy for Mother.

It ever love fashioned a Christmas gift, Or saved its money and practiced thrift; 'Twas done in those days, my brother— Those golden times of long gone by, Or our happiest years, when you and I Talk over the gift for Mother.

We hadn't gone forth on our different ways, Nor colored our lives into yesterday's In the fires that smelt and smothered, And we whispered and planned in our youthful glee Of that marvelous something which was to be The gift of our hearts to Mother.

It had to be all that our purse could give, Something she'd treasure while she should live, And better than any other. We gave it the best of our love and thought, And oh, the joy when at last we'd bought That marvelous gift for Mother.

Now I think as we go on our different ways, Of the joy of those vanished yesterday's, How good it would be, my brother, If this Christmas time we could only know That same sweet thrill of the long ago When we shared in the gift for Mother.

HOW HE ENDED KIDNEY TROUBLE
"I had a severe attack of kidney trouble and for three weeks could not get out of doors and scarcely out of bed," writes C. E. Brewer, Village Ala. "Could not bend over at all without the most excruciating pains. I purchased a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills. Was relieved after first few doses and continued their use until completely cured. I consider Foley Kidney Pills the best remedy in the world. No recurrence of my trouble." A. R. McIntyre Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Orange Growers to Celebrate at San Bernardino

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Dec. 26.—More than 1,000,000 oranges will be used by citrus fruit growers of California to build their annual exposition, the National Orange Show, to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the planting of one of California's first orange trees by Padre Dumetz, a Franciscan.

The exposition will be held in San Bernardino, February 13 to 23. Florida will send fruit to compete in some of the citrus fruit classifications. For ten years the citrus fruit growers of California have been entertaining many thousands of people from many states at their exposition. It will be laid out in a great garden of flowers at a park, and citrus fruit communities of the state will vie with each other in the splendor of their works of art created from the golden fruit.

The site of the orange show is at the spot where the Franciscan padre planted the first orange tree of the region. Prizes will be awarded to the growers who produce the choicest of oranges, grapefruit and lemons. Last year more than 100,000 people attended the exposition, which has become one of California's most famous mid-winter events.

known ice; for me, ah! watchful waiting must evermore suffice. Among the youthful friskers I have no place, alas! Behind my stack of whiskeys I sit and watch them pass. The snow is in the valley, the snow is on the hall, and there the children sally; they're coasting with a will. I hear their joyous laughter, as down the slope they whiz, while I, in slat and raffet, have pangs of rheumatism. I sit behind my gateway, and to blithe words give tongue: "your youth won't last you all ways, so go it while you're young!" I don't admire the gaffer, the ancient, drooping lad, who chides the happy laughter, and makes Youth's spirit sad. I cannot join the skaters, I cannot tool a sled, or dance, in tireless patters, when others are in bed. But all the joyous playing of kids looks good to me, although my head is grey, and I've a sprained knee. The young, with smiling faces, are playing in the snow; behind my hanging laces I bless them as they go.

LITTLE BENNY'S Note Book

By LEE PAPE

Last Sunday morning I had my new patten leather shoes on, and I started to walk past Mary Watkins house just for the walk and Mary Watkins was standing on her top step all dressed up as if she were either coming home from sunbath or just going some place looking pretty pretty all rite, and I stopped going past, saying, Good morning, are you going out?

Good morning, no, I'm coming home, said Mary Watkins. And we kept on talking different answers and

RASH ON HEAD HAIR CAME OUT

Itching. Very Irritating.
Cuticura Healed.

"My head began to itch, causing me to scratch, and a rash came. The itching was very irritating, and my hair came out terribly, and became thin and dry. The breaking out caused disfigurement for the time being."

"Then I started to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment when I was healed." (Signed) Miss Nina Venetucci, R. R. 1, Box 112, Colorado Springs, Colo., Jan. 22, 1919.

Daily use of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum usually prevent skin troubles.
